PROGRAM OVERVIEW & SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Voter Outreach Training & Workshop – Winning Big & Blue in 2018

Code Blue and One Country over Party have joined forces with IOC48, Pantsuit Nation, HB Huddle, OC Progressive, Imagine Action, Swell, Wave, TWW, Laguna Unites, Courage Campaign, Clean Votes, SwingSocialLeft, SwingLeft, Equality California, Healthy California, and many of the Democratic Clubs to organize an effective and inspiring ground game! We are registering voters in hotspot locations, recruiting volunteers, and collecting commitment-to-vote postcards.

- 2018 Election Cycle Overview & Timing
- Important Distinction between Mobilizing and Organizing
- Voter Registration Program & Training
- District Strategies for 2018 Big Blue Wins
- Why this is important . . . Personal stories and inspirations

Sara Holland, Community Activist

Sara spent months in the Nevada desert in 2008 as the assistant to the state field director for Obama For America. She interned in Senator Feinstein's office, and worked on democracy and peace building issues at the Washington Institute for Near East Policy while earning her Master's Degree in International Politics at Queen's University in Belfast, Northern Ireland, where she lived for almost a decade. She is also a teacher for Los Angeles Unified where she is active in organizing for public schools and against privatization of education. All of her experiences tell her that "democracy lives and dies in the field of every campaign."

Cate Hardesty, NBWDC Member & Community Activist

Cate joined NBWDC in January 2017 and hit the ground running. She marched with NBWDC at the OC Women's March, joined NBWDC Indivisible Task Force, is the 48th District Captain for Code Blue and the Coordinator for 48th Action Council. Her particular passion, which will be apparent in this presentation, is her drive to get out the vote and achieve big blue wins in 2018!

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."
