SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Tara Steele, Chair NBWDC Communications Committee

Tara Moore Steele is an Orange County native having been born and raised in Westminster. She attended Westminster High School, received her Bachelor's Degree in Communications from California State University Fullerton and earned an MBA at USC.

Tara and her family currently reside in Huntington Beach. She is a proud working mother of two young children and has spent the majority of her career in marketing. She's worked building world-renowned brands such as the Los Angeles Dodgers, Universal Studios and eHarmony.

A lifelong Democrat, like so many others Tara was shocked and saddened by the results of the 2016 Presidential election and the subsequent attacks on our civil liberties by this administration. Since late 2016 she's been actively involved with the Newport Beach Women's Democratic Club, overseeing their social media and marketing efforts. She also serves as the club's representative to the Central Committee and is looking forward to being part of the blue wave of positive change sweeping Orange County.

Brandon Love, Attorney

Brandon Love is an Attorney and Real Estate Broker who has lived in Orange County for his entire life. He attended Newport Beach public schools, obtained a political science degree from UCI, and graduated from Chapman Law School. Currently, he lives in Costa Mesa with his wife and two young children.

All of these experiences have instilled in Brandon a deep sense of pride in the county he calls home. Brandon merges that pride with his passion for politics by speaking with various groups about the important role county governance plays in our lives. It is his hope that heightening awareness of this topic will help ensure that Orange County continues to be the special place we all know it to be.

Brett Murdock, Candidate for Orange County District Attorney

Brett Murdock is a lifelong Orange County resident and twenty-year small business owner. He was elected to the Brea City Council in 2010 and served as Mayor in 2014.

Murdock's long history of community involvement includes serving as President of the Orange County Division of the League of California Cities, Chair of the Orange County Council of Governments, Chair of the Orange County Waste Management Commission, and Chair of the Operations Committee of the Orange County Sanitation District. He is also an active member of the Brea Rotary Club, and the President of a non-profit organization that provides and maintains low-income housing for seniors.

Murdock holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science from the University of California, San Diego. He earned his Juris Doctorate from Chapman University School of Law. Brett lives in the City of Brea, with his wife, Roni, and their two children.
